FBO of the Week: (Mar 4 2013) WEST HOUSTON AIRPORT (KIWS)

AVweb's "FBO of the Week" ribbon goes to West Houston Airport (KIWS) in Houston, Texas. AVweb reader Trevor Fenimore recommended the FBO: "I spent three months working out of West Houston Airport doing Aerial Survey, and this FBO was the best I have used during my eight months on the road. They were always very professional and courteous. Breakfast is catered free for customers every morning. There are massage chairs with big-screen TVs, a 3-D cinema, and an excellent flight planning room with multiple computers. The line staff is very efficient and will have you back in the air in no time with a clean windshield and full tanks. Reduced fuel prices on the weekends. Truly a first-rate FBO!" <http://www.avweb.com/cgi-bin/texis/scripts/avweb-search/search.html?query=fbo&publication=avflash&category=fbo>
